Half the excitement of attending a workshop is meeting new people and making new friends. In the case of the Sterling Edward's workshop, attendees were from across the country celebrating the joys of watercolor painting.

There are a lot of talented painters, locally and across the country, coming to workshops – as always, it is an opportunity to learn, not only from the instructor, but the other artists attending as well.

Thanks to Sharon Menary and all those who helped her in putting on a great workshop.

Congratulations to all the winners from the Society's Open Show at the Spring's Preserve. This show is our premier competition open to the public, not just members of NVWS. Thank you to Sylvia Bachiochi and her helpers in their herculean efforts giving us the best exhibit in the Valley.

The NVWS could not exist without the efforts of the volunteers who make our water-media dreams all come true.

We are still looking for a few good folks to join the awesome and talented Board and Chairs making the Society the best in Nevada.

Our next meeting at the Mesquite Club will have demos by three artists using a variety of techniques. It will be a learning experience for all.

Until then, paint with wild abandon...
