Dear Members and Friends,

Merry Christmas, Happy New Years and Seasons greetings to all.

It has been an interesting 2016 to say the least. Some friends have departed, but new friends have showed up. The Society has provided ample opportunity to expand our artistic skills with workshops and show them off at various Las Vegas venues.

Our new Artist of the Month program has created lots of interest and we enter 2017 with the new scholarship program guided by Libby Chan. We look forward to choosing a deserving student to receive our 2017 scholarship award.

Ed Hoag gave me a lot of new ideas for expanding my watercolor experience during his November presentation. Georgia Lawson had a great display of her artist abilities. If you haven't been to our recent meetings, you are missing great shows.

December will be our usual gift exchange, so mat, sack and wrap a recent example of your art and bring your favorite dish to the Christmas Potluck. I will be in Iowa witnessing my 62 year old son receive his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Iowa State University. I am proud of his "Never too late to start" attitude. I encourage everyone in our Society to promote Water Coloring with the same attitude to all your family and friends.

Barbara Stanton and Roberto Rico will be minding the store in my absence.

Jim Champlin, President
