The "tree" challenge was such fun. More than 48 members vied for the best interpretation of "tree" with some 56 paintings brought to the Mesquite Club for February's General Meeting...what conversations, what fun!!!!

Congratulations to Sue Roach for having the best, member-voted "tree" painting. Thanks also go out to Pat Caspary for her exceptional organization of the event and to Gail Montoure and Amy Smiecinski for providing the administrative assistance making the event a total success.

We are still looking forward to filling some chair positions including Communications, Ways and Means, and Parliamentarian. The Society needs your help in maintaining a quality of programs to its members. Please consider volunteering and helping the Society.

In March, the General Meeting will be held at Spanish Oaks Club House for Sterling Edward's workshop demonstration. If you go to the Mesquite Club, you will find it locked and dark. Look for directions in the newsletter.

Sterling paints with large brushes creating a unique interpretive painting that consists of interlocking shapes, light and dark values and colors. His representational abstractions are in private and corporate collections around the world. Sterling is represented by numerous galleries in the United States and Canada.

His national and international workshops are filled-to-capacity and always booked far in advance. So, please join us for this learning experience at Spanish Oaks.

Join us also for the reception for the Open NVWS 2014 Exhibition at The Springs Preserve on Saturday, March 15th from 6 to 8:30 pm.

With that, I hope that you are painting with wild abandon.
